Crete is the largest and most populous of the Greek islands. Inhabited for more than 130,000 years, during Paleolithic times, it was the center Europe's first advanced civilizations – the Minoans from 2700 to 1420BC. With breathtaking scenery, unsurpassed culture, delightful restaurants and cafes, its moderate winter is a wonderful time to visit without the crowds. Optional tours to Athens, Sofia as well as a Mediterranean cruise will be offered to enhance your experience. The Island of Crete Santa Goodwill Tour can be combined with the Cork, Ireland Santa.
