The Moorish minaret of the 12th-century Koutoubia Mosque is a symbol of the city visible from miles away. Optional extensions to the Atlas Mountains, Essouira, Casablanca and Tangier.

Amalfi Coast is lively, vibrant with stunning cliffside landscapes, hillside villages, historical sites, beach activities and water sports. Positano is a cliff-top village on Italy's Amalfi Coast. It is a popular holiday destination with a pebble beach and narrow, steep streets lined with clothing shops and cafés. The church Chiesa di Santa Maria Assunta has a dome with majolica ceramics and a 13th-century Byzantine icon of the Virgin Mary. The Sentiero degli Dei hiking trail connects Positano with other coastal towns. Optional stops along the Amalfi Coast.
