In the words of Cindy Bickman, the owner and director of the Chattooga School of Gymnastics and Dance, when a child is born with a disability, doctors tell the parents all the things that child will never be able to do – the “dis” in disability. Not many people focus on the abilities that child may have.

For over 30 years, Chattooga has been the home for students with disabilities, providing excellence in dance & gymnastics instruction for all ages & levels. Currently, over 70 students with special needs (ages 2 – 46) participate in Chattooga classes. The students pay the yearly registration fee, but are not charged for classes. It’s Chattooga’s way of giving back to the community.
